

This Week in the Butte: June 19th - 28th

Welcome to the Wildflower Capital of Colorado

Between great outdoor activities, unique local shopping, vibrant art galleries and fun events, there is always something to do here in paradise. To help you get the most out of your stay, we outline some things to do in town and on the mountain each week. Whether you like good food, adventure, or want to enjoy local happenings, the CB Connection will help guide you. We hope you have a wonderful and memorable time in the Wildflower Capital of Colorado and at Crested Butte Mountain Resort.

Alpenglow Gallery Summer Solstice Opening

Alpenglow Art Gallery is proud to feature local artists in varying media. The gallery features art that reflects the landscape, culture and creativity unique to Crested Butte. Crested Butte Heritage Museum

Come learn about Crested Butte, beginning in the 1800s when miners came to town to stake their claim; back when skiing was used as a form of transportation during the winter months. Ski hills began emerging for recreation in the 1930s, but it wasn't until 1961 that Crested Butte Mountain was founded as a ski area. There are photos in the Treasury Center that can begin your historical inquiry, but visit the museum downtown to get the full story. It is located downtown at Elk Ave. and 4th St. and it has a museum shop and many exhibits for all ages. Call 970.349.1880 for more information.

Logo'd Souvenirs

Need a souvenir from your trip or a gift to take back home? Want to remember your Crested Butte vacation? Stop by the new location of Logo'd at Crested Butte, base-side for all the best Crested Butte logo wear. Open daily from 8:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.
